

ARTIST BIO

Ben Finn

Ben Finn has had a long career working the Sydney Hotel and Club circuit in various different band line-ups. He is a principal in Maxx Music, which is the largest privately run music school in Sydney and an established retail outlet.

After much cajoling he was finally convinced to accept solo work at his local. Ten years later he has established himself as one of the most powerful live solo acts seen in Sydney since the days of the Rest Hotel.

Ben Finn is not a passenger. He drives the entertainment factor with an acoustic axe sensibility and delivers a performance of well chosen repertoire and clever wit.

From laid back lazy lounge acoustic, to Irish brogues, to rock classics, to Australia's best know hits, or even Australiana Ben Finn can perform it.